

ESP

Spain 2 - 1 England

ENG

Olympiastadion, Berlin | 14 July 2024 | Data: StatsBomb

SPAIN

KEY MATCH STATISTICS

ENGLAND

16

Shots

9

6

Shots on Target

3

1.79

xG

0.73

87.4

Pass Acc %

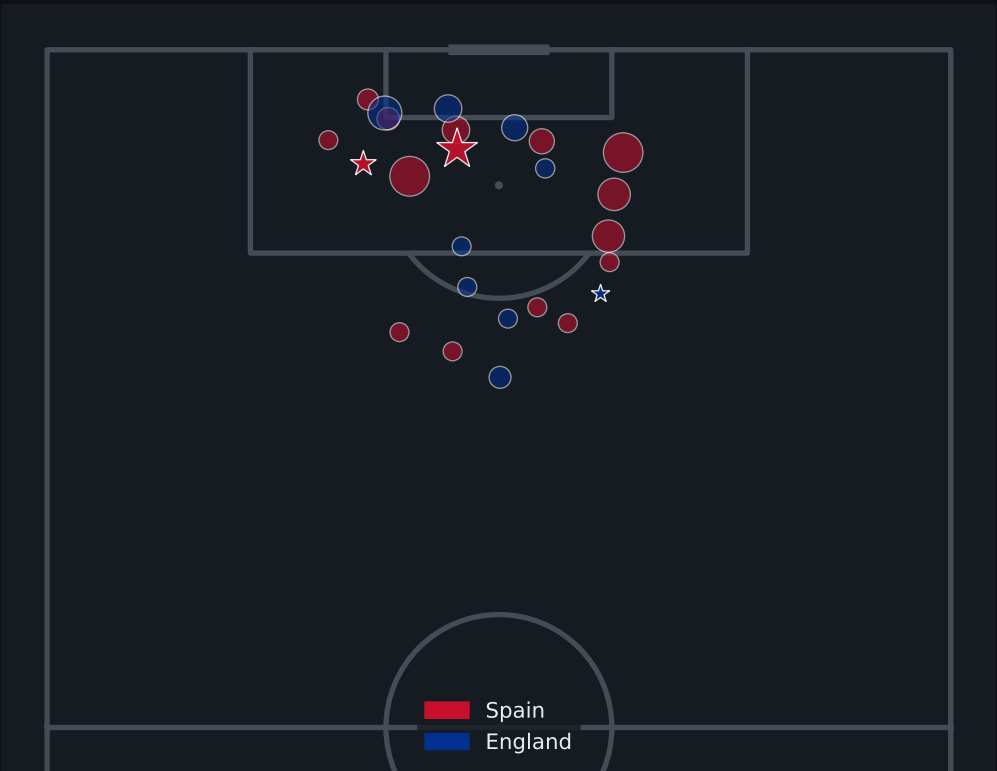

78.4

161

Pressures

166

SHOT MAP (★ = Goal | size = xG)

SPAIN — PASS DENSITY

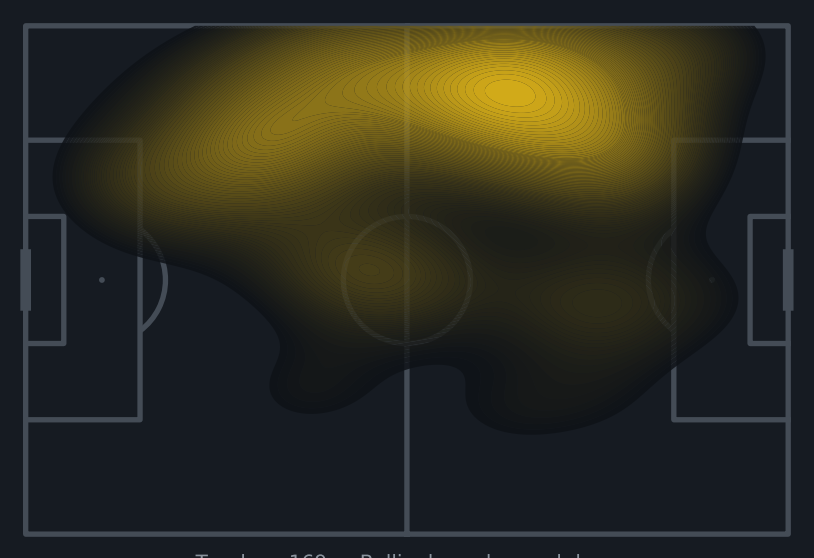

Spain dominated the left half-space in buildup, passing through central channels to break England's block.

ENGLAND — PASS DENSITY

England were restricted to their own half, struggling to progress through Spain's high press.

BELLINGHAM — TOUCH MAP

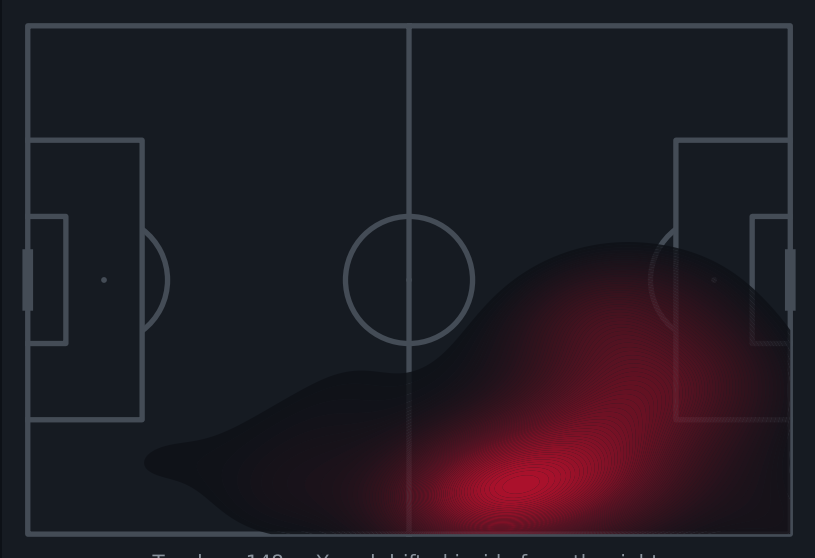

Touches: 169 — Bellingham dropped deep to receive but rarely impacted the final third.

SAKA — TOUCH MAP

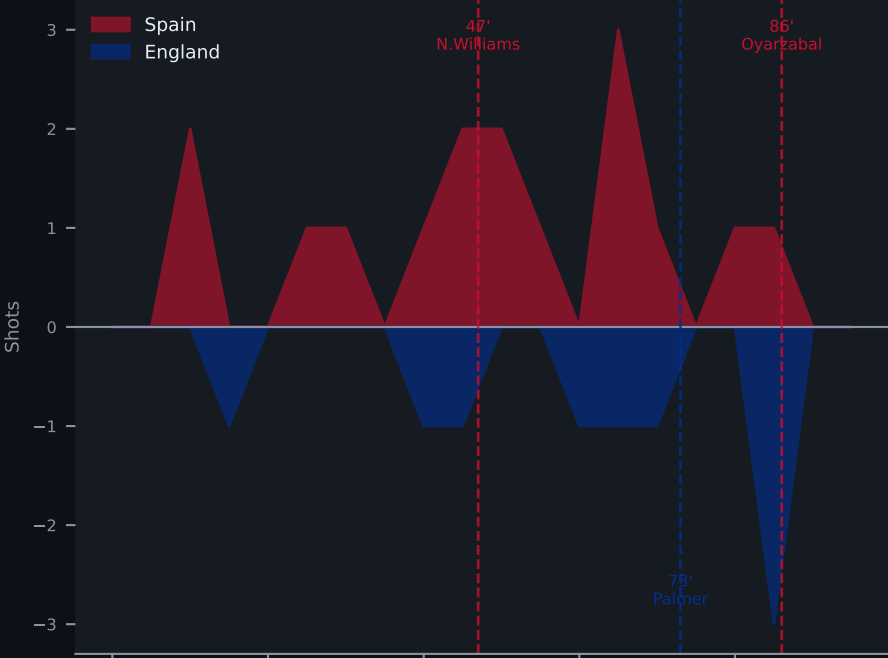

Touches: 118 — Saka isolated on the right, limited by Spain's defensive shape.

YAMAL — TOUCH MAP

Touches: 148 — Yamal drifted inside from the right, creating overloads and winning the penalty.

SHOT MOMENTUM

Spain controlled the final from start to finish, dominating possession and creating nearly 2.5x England's xG. Nico Williams broke the deadlock on 47' before Cole Palmer equalised on 73', briefly raising England's hopes. Oyarzabal's 86th-minute winner sealed Spain's fourth European Championship. England rarely threatened, with Bellingham dropping deep and Saka isolated — Southgate's side never found a way through.